OUTLINES.

A woman who registered under the name of Mrs. Schmitt, of Hot Springs, committed suicide in a Memphis, Tenn., hotel yesterday after giving her child a dose of poison, which later resulted in its death——The flood of the Arkansas river is causing much uneasiness to people at Pine Bluff, Ark., and an appeal for aid in protecting the city has been made——A representative gathering of Southerners will attend the dinner of the North Carolina Society, of New York, on December 7th. Hugh MacRae, of Wilmington, will be one of the speakers——John D. Archbold submitting evidence in the Government's suit against the Standard Oil Company, was questioned at length yesterday in regard to the Standard's relations with so called subsidiary companies ——Resulting from a family feud in Laurel county, Kentucky, between several families, William Barnes and Mrs. Emma Taylor, were murdered last Sunday by William Tyree and Robert Barnes——The notes exchanged between the United States and Japan "declaring their policy in the Far East" were made public at the State Department last night——Several Southern men appeared before the Ways and Means Committee yesterday and advocated high tariff on articles the people of their section were interested in, such as cotton and certain mill products——Roosevelt decides to re-appoint the negro Crum as collector of customs at Charleston and to make D. J. Keefe, president of the International Association of Longshoremen, the Commissioner General of Immigration. Keefe was a Taft supporter against Gompers' effor to lead the Federation of Labor men to Bryan——Seaboard Air Line receivers call for bids for $900,000 worth of new rolling stock——Mr. Newberry was yesterday sworn in as the New Secretary of the Navy and attended his first cabinet meeting—— New York Markets: Money on call firmer, at 1 3-4 to 2 1-2 per cent., ruling rate 1 3-4, closing bid 2, offered at 2 1-4. Flour firm. Wheat strong, No. 2 red 1.12 3-4 to 1.14 1-4 elevator. Corn easy, No. 2 70 1-2 to arrive. Oats steady, mixed 53 1-2 to 54. Rosin firm, turpentine quiet. Cotton quiet, middling uplands 9.35, middling gulf 9.60.

Carnegie's attitude on the tariff question is as much a puzzle to his friends as it is to his enemies.

We suppose Dr. Stiles was prepared for the attacks made on him when he delivered that speech in Raleigh.

The Republicans may not intend to give the people any tariff reform, but they do not dare to tell them they wont do so.

The News and Observer says editorially that Bryan will not be a candidate in 1912. The editor of that paper ought to know.

If there is anybody in this country who knows that steel manufacturers do not any longer need the protection of high tariff Carnegie is the man.

And still the papers give daily accounts of shooting accidents in the hunting fields. Such tragedies seem to be far more numerous than usual this season.

That decision of the Federal Supreme Court in the Virginia railway passenger rate case will stagger some of those who class the federal courts as alien judicial bodies.

If it be true that crime begets crime, won't successful running of blind tigers and operation of blockade stills lead to other and greater violations of the law?

The manner in which Rockefeller gave his testimony in the Standard Oil case shows that he is of Tallyrand's opinion that language was given to us to conceal our thoughts.

We hope the Democrats in the next Congress will get together on the tariff question and adopt a plan of action based on the principle of low tariff as the greatest good to the greatest number.

If the Ways and Means committee is going to compel witnesses to attend its meetings and testify on tariff matters it should make Carnegie one of them. He could tell them more than any one else about the working of the tariff on iron and steel industries of the country.

In a forecast given by the Star a few days before the recent election we estimated the Democratic majority in the State at 25,000 to 30,000. Averaging the majorities of Bryan and Kitchin the result is a little less than 30,000.

If Bryan had taken Minnamascot with him to Mexico as a present to the President of that Republic he would have avoided all the contention now going on as to which county in this whole country is entitled to the lady mule as a Democratic election prize.

PENNY'S CARNIVAL SALE

Opened Yesterday Morning With Great Rush for Bargains Offered.

If imitation is the sincerest flattery, then W. J. Penny & Co., the enterprising clothiers on South Front street, have every reason to be proud. Coincident with the announcement of the beginning of their sale and the enclosing of their store front with a huge sign announcing the opening yesterday, a number of Syrian merchants in the same vicinity took occasion to copy his methods, even to the colors, and it is hard for the earnest seeker for the Penny store to tell just exactly where to enter. The methods of these parasites on the legitimate advertising of a reputable firm cannot be too severely condemned. It is good to know, however, that Penny's Carnival Sale opened in great shape yesterday and that an extra corps of salespeople were kept busy as bees in spite of his imitators. The sale will continue 12 days and some rare and valuable bargains are offered.

Little Symbols of Good Will Toward All Men Are Taking Freely.

It is good to know that with the advent of December 1st, Wilmington merchants and business men are manifesting a commendable zeal in co-operating with the ladies of the Red Cross Society for a general use of the pretty little Christmas stamps during the holidays. With its sprig of holly and happy "Merry Christmas, Happy New Year" it promises to decorate many a package and letter during the gladsome yuletide and the purposes for which it is used should commend it to the public everywhere. Other business houses which have agreed to use the stamps during the month of December are Shadeland Dairy, J. M. Solky & Co., City Livery, Will Rehder, Hyman Supply Co., J. A. Taylor and Col. Walker Taylor.

McKinstry, president of a bank in Gainesville, is executor of the estate and under the will, Jas. C. Rush, of Fayetteville, an only son, is left the bulk of the estate.

THE CARNIVAL TAX

City Clerk and Treasurer Served With Notice Carnival Shows Must Pay.

SUIT IS THREATENED

Aldermen Sought to be Held Personally Liable For Amount of Tax. Shows Continuing at The Grounds.

Herbert McClammy, Esq., counsel for the fifty or more local merchants who memorialized the Board of Aldermen Monday night to rescind the action of seven of its members granting an exemption of the carnival shows from city tax during the week's continuance of their performances in the city under the auspices of the Order of Owls, yesterday served formal and official notice on City Clerk and Treasurer Fowler that, notwithstanding the action of the Aldermen, he would expect him to use due dilligence in the collection of the tax upon the carnival shows and giving notice that his clients will bring suit against him and members of the Board of Aldermen personally unless the tax is collected and paid into the city treasury.

Mr. Fowler immediately sought an opinion from City Attorney Marsden Bellamy, Jr., and he now has the matter under advisement with the likelihood that something definite will be done in the matter today. Mr. McClammy left yesterday afternoon for Whiteville to attend Columbus Superior Court and it is hinted that he may be after an injunction restraining the carnival shows from exhibiting until the tax has been paid, but he would give nothing for publication as he was leaving for the train yesterday afternoon, except to say that he would certainly push the matter upon his return today unless the shows were required to pay the tax, which is $5 upon each performance under each tent.

Mayor Springer stated that in the event the City Attorney held that the shows were liable for the tax he will use every effort in his power to collect the same. City Attorney Bellamy is looking into the matter very carefully and will give his opinion only after the most careful search into the law, though he is inclined to believe that the city is inhibited by the State law from placing a tax upon amusement enterprises given strictly for charitable and benevolent purposes as set up for the present carnival by the Order of Owls.

In the meantime all the shows with several new ones are in full blast out at the grounds. The Mayor and Chief of Police, however, are giving personal attention to the charge that some of the shows last week were immoral and the Owls are co-operating with them in every way to see that only first class attractions are tolerated.

MARRIED LAST NIGHT.

Miss Annie May Barker and Mr. E. M. P. Odham Are Wedded.

A quiet but withal a very pretty wedding ceremony last evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. B. D. Hamilton, No. 417 Castle street, Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church, officiating, happily united in marriage Miss Annie May Barker, an attractive young lady of this city, and Mr. Emerson M. P. Odham, a well known and popular young man of Wilmington. The marriage was beneath a large wedding bell suspended from a beautiful arch of smilax and the wedding party was preceded into the parlor by Misses Florence and Annie Hamilton, the pretty little flower girls, the bride entering with Mr. Hamilton and the groom with his best man, Mr. R. C. Fergus. A large number of handsome wedding presents attest the high esteem in which they are held. Mr. and Mrs. Odham will live at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Emma Odham, Sixth, between Castle and Queen streets and will be pleased to receive their friends.

FARMER DIED SUDDENLY.

Fell in Physician's Office Where He Had Gone for Consultation.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Lumberton, N. C., Dec. 1.—R. D. Edwards, a farmer probably fifty years old, residing three miles from town, died suddenly late this evening in Dr. Thompson's office where he had gone for consultation. He had just entered the office and exchanged a few words with the doctor when he fell to the floor. A hasty examination showed that life was extinct, and all efforts to revive him were in vain.

Revival Closed Last Evening.

The close of the revival at Southside Baptist church last evening was marked by the usual good attendance and another excellent sermon by Dr. Hale, who has been assisting the pastor during the meetings. Fifty-one accessions have been made to the church and the meetings have been a source of much good. Dr. Hale and Rev. Mr. Martin will conduct the usual prayer meeting services at their respective churches this evening.

MR. J. F. HEAD SECRETARY

Establishment of Credit Bureau Abandoned—Traffic Manager for Chamber of Commerce With Other Duties—Meeting Yesterday.

At a special meeting of the Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday morning at 11 o'clock following a general meeting of the organization at which it was decided, for the lack of sufficient general support, to abandon the effort to establish a credit bureau in this city, Mr. J. F. Head was elected secretary and traffic manager of the Chamber, vice Mr. John S. McEachern, who resigned the position which was only temporarily filled by him after the recent resignation of Mr. James Kyle.

An election of a permanent secretary had not been made sooner because the fact that it was proposed to establish in connection with the Chamber a credit bureau with a traffic manager in charge in connection, but this effort having failed, it was decided to elect a secretary and traffic manager in connection, hence the selection of Mr. Head. The committee to which the matter of a credit bureau had been referred, reported at the meeting yesterday morning that for lack of sufficient support the project had been abandoned and soon after the general meeting the Executive Committee assembled and elected Mr. Head, who will enter upon his new duties today. Mr. Head has for some years been in charge of the Southern Freight Claim Agency in this city and is a young man of experience and ability. In connection with his duties as secretary, he will look after the traffic affairs of the Chamber and will continue to handle the claims and business of the Southern Freight Claim Agency for those who are not members of the Chamber, employing his own assistants and office force. Mr. James L. Duffy, who for the past four years has been the very efficient assistant secretary of the Chamber, will remain with Mr. Head for two weeks, after which time he will qualify himself for the position of traveling salesman for the well known wholesale grocery house of Mr. J. A. Taylor, taking the road on January 1st. These changes will be of interest and pleasure to the friends of the young men interested.

DAIRY IS DESTROYED

Plant of Mr. A. O. McEachern, in East Wilmington Burned Yesterday Morning.

ESTIMATED LOSS OF $8,000

Live Stock Escaped With Feed Forage and Implements Lost—Work of Rebuilding Begun at Once. Announcement.

The plant of the Shadeland Dairy, embracing seven or eight buildings, owned and operated by Mr. A. O. McEachern, of this city, was totally destroyed by fire, which is thought to have originated from lime used about the premises for disinfecting purposes, yesterday morning about 11 o'clock.

The loss including a large amount of feed, forage, guano and implements stored in the several buildings, is estimated at $8,000 with only $5,000 insurance, carried with the agency of Col. Walker Taylor. One hundred and twenty-five head of milch cows in the dairy had been sent to pasture shortly before the fire and they escaped unhurt. One or two calves in the stables are thought to have perished in the flames, but otherwise the dairy was exceedingly fortunate with the live stock and yesterday within an hour after the fire had subsided, lumber from the Bell-Cantwell Lumber Co., was on the grounds and before night all the cows were again housed and the management announced there would be no interruption or delay in the delivery of milk, this being the chief supply for the city.

The fire was first discovered by Foreman William Upchurch about the middle rear of the large main building of the plant out of which 125 cows had just been driven. Other stock and poultry were gotten out as far as possible, the last to leave the burning building being a small dog tethered by a rope which burned in two before he could secure his liberty. A small tenant house to the east of the main building was included in the property destroyed, the colored family occupying it having saved most of their household effects. The residence of Mr. McEachern across the Market street road, was not damaged by the fire. The sheds and two large silos in the rear of the barn, all well filled with hay and green feed just housed by the dairy, went up in smoke, only one barn having been saved. The engine and pump house was destroyed but a part of the machinery was saved. The entire crop of the hay from the dairy farm had just been housed and the loss in this particular alone was very heavy. Mr. McEachern had only a few days before the fire cancelled one of his insurance policies for $500.

The black smoke on the eastern horizon attracted a large number of people to the fire and an alarm was sent in to the city fire department from Eighth and Market streets, but the apparatus was sent only to the limits at 17th street, it being known that no assistance could be rendered without water. Good work was done by employes of the dairy and people from the vicinity, who worked valiantly in bucket brigades and in saving the contents of some of the buildings. Many people from the city hastened to the fire in buggies and automobiles and although the fire burned fiercely, many arrived in time to see the greater part of the blaze.

As before stated, the delivery of milk from the dairy will in no wise be interrupted and deliveries were being made yesterday as usual both from the dairy in East Wilmington and from the supply department at Eighth and Princess streets. The enterprise of the management in this respect is to be highly commended.

BIG SALE AT A. SHRIER'S.

Sensational Merchandising Event Begins at 9 This Morning.

This morning with the stroke of nine by the town clock will be heard the rattle of the hatchet and the music of the saw as the large advertising signs from the front of the store of A. Shrier, at southeast corner of Front and Princess streets, will be torn away and the doors will be thrown open for a ten days' sensational sale of $25,000 worth of clothing, shoes, hats and gents' furnishings. Since Saturday night the store has been closed while a score of clerks were as busy as beavers marking down prices and arranging the stock for the big sale. The services of the well known firm of J. L. Stern & Co., have been secured and for ten days the welkin will be made to ring with prices hammered to the bottom. A large extra force of clerks has been employed to wait on the large patronage that the prices are bound to attract to the store and it will be found the part of wisdom to come early, avoid the rush and secure best selections. The sale embraces everything in stock, including the famous Regal Shoes, Schloss Bros. & Co's. clothing and many other standard manufactures.

WILMINGTON AND THE COAST LINE.

We feel sure that all of the Star readers interested in such matters read carefully the article in yesterday's paper taken from the Commercial and Financial Record on the last annual report of the Atlantic Coast Line, showing the healthy condition of that system which is so closely allied with the business interests of our city; still there are some facts in connection with that railroad system to which we wish to call the attention of our people which are not mentioned in the article referred to. The Atlantic Coast Line has in recent years developed into one of the leading railroad systems of the country, operating and controlling thousands of miles of railway, yet it is based on the old Wilmington & Weldon railroad, a line of less than two hundred miles in length, which is the parent road of this now vast system. Starting with this—what would now be called an insignificant line—the owners, by clearheadedness, judicious management and honest dealings, have built up a system which merits the surprise and admiration of the railroad world. Fair treatment of employes and honest dealings with the public have been the motto of the system ever since it passed into the hands of the present management. Small stockholders have ever stood on the same plane as the big railway officials who held stock in big blocks. They were given, always, a fair showing and the patrons of the road have always been given a hearing when thinking they had cause of campaint. The most humble employe has always felt that he would be accorded a hearing by the proper official when he had a cause of complaint and that his case would be given fair consideration. All these facts made every stockholder how-so-ever small his holding, and every employe of the road how-so-ever humble his position, a strong friend of the system and a co-worker with the higher officials in the welfare and progress of the same.

In these facts lie the secret of the great success of this system. Conservatism and horse sense in management, fair dealing in commercial relations with patrons and just treatment of employes have enabled this system to successfully weather financial storms which would in similar circumstances have driven to the wall companies not so judiciously managed.

It is especially gratifying to the people of our city that the Coast Line system has so rapidly recovered from the general depression which the panic of last year and other causes brought upon all business enterprises. A year ago Coast Line stock because of general depression, was selling on the markets at 58. Today it is worth 110, having reached this point by steady rise. Few, if any, corporations in the country have experienced such recuperation, and this is based on real values, not on ficutious or Wall street gambling prices. It shows the wonderful recuperative powers of the company and the immense intrinsic value of its properties.

While this system covers a large area of the South we Wilmington people still look upon it as a local concern because of ours being the parent stem of the system, because of the location of the general offices and shops here which give employment to so many residents of our city. For these reasons the Wilmington people have come to look upon the Coast Line system as a local concern—somewhat belonging to them and as a part of their city. They take pride in its progress and rejoice in every indication of its success, knowing also that the success of the Coast Line means business prosperity for Wilmington.

OF INTEREST TO ALL CAROLINIANS.

We are surprised and disappointed to see that but one other paper in this State besides the Star took enough interest in the Rivers and Harbors Congress which meets in Washington City on the 9th to publish the call of the president for that meeting. This is a matter of the greatest importance to a very large section of our State. We do not understand why more of the State papers do not give it prominence and urge a large attendance of North Carolinians. The Fayetteville Observer which is one of the most ardent advocates of the Congress, on yesterday called attention to the fact that only the Star and the Raleigh Times had seen fit to comment upon this meeting and call attention to its importance to our State. From the central part of the State east the people are directly interested in the plan to secure a 30-foot channel from Wilmington to the sea and of an 8-foot depth of water from our city to Fayetteville. One of these schemes is as important as the other to the people in the central and entire eastern section of our State. As a plan to reduce freight rates the whole State over, these two schemes go hand in hand. When these works are completed North Carolina towns will have a new basis for establishing freight rates, based on water rates to Wilmington and Fayetteville as Virginia points—even in the mountains—now have in water rates to Norfolk which give those towns the advantage over points similarly situated in our State. Thirty-feet to Wilmington and eight feet to Fayetteville will work wonders in reducing freight rates to inland Carolina towns. Then why should not inland towns show interest in this matter?

To those of our northern friends who have recently come south to escape the ice and snow of their homes in higher latitudes we wish to say that this is not the kind of weather we have here the Winter through. We do not want to fool them into thinking so. If they stay awhile with us they must expect some biting winds and frosty weather, but nothing like what they have escaped by coming south should they stay to experience the bitterest weather of this section.

The American Review of Reviews for December has come from the presses of the publishers, the Review of Reviews Company, No. 13 Astor Place, New York City. The articles under the two general heads, "The Progress of the World," and "Record of Current Events," are well worth the price of the magazine, but there is much other instructive and entertaining reading matter between its covers.

One shake of Taft's finger in Cannon's face seems to have had more effect than months of flourishing of the big stick by Roosevelt. The Speaker evidently thought the one quiet gesture of the President-elect meant a great deal more to him than the many spectacular ones of the present incumbent of the White House.

On next Monday, with the inauguration of new county officers the fee system will be abolished in several counties in the State and the new officers will be placed on salaries. The one or two counties which already have this plan find it to work much better than the old system of fees.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Eleanor Merron Cowper, a talented actress and playright, fatally shot herself Friday in New York and with suicidal intent. In a letter that she left she referred to a short period of time as "practically all the home life she had ever enjoyed." This was a pathetic statement. A woman without home-life—hardly anything is so anomalous. Who will not drop a tear on the bier of this woman, who with all her brilliancy was yet without a home?—Greensboro Telegram.

—Mr. Bryan having publicly expressed the "Hope that it will never be necessary for me to run for office again," it behooves all his genuine friends so to speak and act that his hope shall not be disappointed. The way to do this is to begin even now to ensure against the occurrence of such a necessity. The poor man's willingness to sacrifice himself for the party has already been more than sufficiently abused. He has earned exemption from further service in the van and should be aided in his yearning for honorable retirement from the cares and labors of leadership.—Virginian-Pilot.

—In 1912 Mr. Bryan will not be the Democratic candidate for President. A candidate will be named who will carry the 136,927 voters who voted for Bryan this year and also many thousand who voted for Taft this year, and the 1,851 who did not vote at all for President. Besides, another Presidential year and those who voted the full Republican ticket as a protest against what they regarded as some Democratic mistake in party management or leadership, having entered their protest will return home, and help to elect a Democratic President. —News and Observer.

—J. Sidney Smith, attorney for the anti-saloon forces in Norfolk, is quoted, in a newspaper interview, to the effect that he expects the next session of the Virginia Legislature will be called upon to order an election on the issue of Statewide prohibition. It is doubtful if Mr. Smith represents the best sentiment of the Anti-Saloon League in that statement. With 80 per cent of the State already dry under the operation of local option, and the area of the dry territory constantly enlarging, the precipitation of a Statewide contest for prohibition would appear to be unnecessary and unwise for the standpoint of real temperance reform. — Harrisonburg News.

—"The overwhelming defeat of North Carolina by Virginia today will do good", said a university alumnus last night, "if it but convinces the trustees of the University of North Carolina that a great institution's athletics cannot be regulated by a religious observance of a set of Sunday school rules, which no other college observes and which serves to put it at the mercy of institutions less scrupulously strict, at the cost of its own dignity. Such a consummation, in my opinion, would be worth even the stinging cost of a state's being made ridiculous. If the present state of affairs is to continue there is a number of female colleges in the State one of whose basket ball teams might be converted into a football club for the historic Thanksgiving day contest."—Charlotte Observer Nov. 27.

—Frank H. Hitchcock has been appointed Postmaster General of the United States in recognition of his rare gifts for discret organization, for dulcet suasion of the civil service vote and for masterly skill at designing and manipulating the irresistible steamroller. The connection between these capacities and the conduct of the biggest postoffice in the world will immediately appear to the discerning. So far as we know, nobody has ever asked Mr Hitchcock what he thinks of postal savings banks, or whether he has ever thought of them at all. So far as we know, nobody has ever investigated his views as to cheaper and better postal service. So far as we know, nobody has once demanded where he stood on parcels-post. But Hitchcock managed William H. Taft's campaign, and it was a success.—Times Dispatch.

—Democracy must take care of itself—even in the bosom of its family. It must be prepared for fight. North Carolina, like Georgia, shows us that under the influence of repeated victory as opposed to repeated defeat, together with the stimulus of selfish interest, there is a not negligible proportion of Democrats who stand ready to quit the colors and go over to the enemy. Democracy should welcome the opportunity for an open and avowed fight where every man must aline himself, and near Democrats and "assistant Republicans" will find themselves under their appropriate standards. That is all that Democracy may ask—that it be not stabbed in the home of its friends and in the back. May the result of the election in North Carolina and in Georgia give the Republicans encouragement to give our friends the enemy the opportunity of an honest alinement against us. If so, the largely increased Republican vote in those two States will not have been cast in vain.—Columbia State.

—First Guest—Won't you join me in requesting young Squalls to recite? Second Guest—But I don't like recitations. First Guest—Neither do I. But if the young beggar doesn't recite he'll sing.—New York Globe.

—"Dr. Post is called in consultation oftener than any other doctor in New York." "How do you account for his success?" "He always says that the family physician has been doing exactly right."—Life.

—Six-year-old Ray's teacher was endeavoring to give some very simple instructions in fractions. She added: "If Jane has six eggs and uses half of them to bake a cake, what part will she have left?" Quickiky came the answer: "The shells!"—Delineator.

—For sheer simplicity of phrase and conception few have surpassed that delightful old lady who, with a shrewd twinkle in her eye, inquired whether "soda-water" should be written as two separate words or if there should be a syphon between them?" —Argonaut.

—A little chap in Philadelphia, whose father is a prominent merchant, and, as such, never loses an opportunity to descant upon the virtues of advertising, one day asked his mother: "May Lucy and I play at keeping store in the front room?" "Yes," assented the mother; "but you must be very, very quiet." "All right," said the youngster; "we'll pretend we don't advertise."—Lippincott's.

FLETCHER-WOOTEN.

Clarkton Couple Surprise Friends by Wedding on Thanksgiving.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Clarkton, N. C., Nov. 26—As a pleasant surprise to their many friends and admirers will come the announcement of the marriage of Miss Bettie Lee Fletcher to Mr. William D. Wooten, which was solemnized this afternoon at the home of Mr. Alex Nance in the presence of a very few friends of the contracting parties. Rev. Frank T. Wooten officiating.

The marriage was the termination of quite a romantic affair of a little over a year. Mr. Wooten's and Miss Fletcher's acquaintance started when she became music instructor in the district graded school last year. For causeless reasons, their intimacy was discouraged by a few on both sides, but such minor objections formed no barrier to love's onward march; which soon advanced in quiet to such a stage as to positively defy defeat. Mrs. Alex Nance, with whom Miss Fletcher resided while music teacher and Mr. Samuel T. Meares, who is a staunch friend of the nuptial principals and who is no stranger as a confederate in such matters, aided and watched with approval the winning play of cupid.

Mr. Wooten is a successful merchant and is identified with the business interest of this section, being successor to his father, the late Shade Wooten, who was the pioneer in the commercial advancement of the section. Miss Fletcher is the talented daughter of the late Raeford Fletcher and her friends and admirers are represented by the number who know her.

While but a few knew of the marriage, it has produced a storm of congratulations and good wishes, which are showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Wooten as they enter upon their new life.

Florida Times-Union: "It is a significant fact that Florida, just at present, is receiving a great deal of attention from prominent officials of the various roads entering the State. There are now in the State prominent parties of transportation men from both the Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard systems. It was stated yesterday by a prominent local official of the Seaboard Air Line that the freight and passenger business of this road is heavier now than ever before in its history. This is an excellent indication of the growth of the industries of the State. The orange shipment is tremendous and it is apparent that this important industry has entirely recovered from past freezes. With the orange, vegetable, lumber, phosphate and numerous other shipments the freight business of the railroads in the State remains good the entire year."

Let Kodol

Digest what you eat. Then you can Eat what you like.

You once could eat anything you wanted, and your stomach would digest it.

But now there's some things which your stomach won't digest. Your stomach absolutely refuses to accommodate you when you eat certain food—so you have been forced by your stomach to eat food which you detested, and pass up those delicacies that you would have really enjoyed.

There is a way now to eat any thing you like, if you will let Kodol digest it.

Kodol will do this, too. It won't talk back or command, but will go right ahead with its work and digest all the food you eat. Kodol will let you eat anything you like and all you want, and you won't suffer with that dull feeling, that fullness, and wish you hadn't eaten so much.

You will not have that heart-burn, which is so annoying at times, if you will let Kodol digest your food a while.

You don't have to use Kodol long—only for a little while—just long enough for your stomach to rest a little. It gets tired sometimes, too—just the same as anybody or part of your body that works.

Kodol will do exactly what your stomach does, when your stomach is well and strong, and more, when it is tired or out of order.

Kodol is composed of exactly the same juices as found in a healthy stomach, and therefore will do the same work as the stomach, when it is well and strong—the only difference is, Kodol never gets tired—and Kodol is the only digestant to-day, that will digest all food and do it as completely, as a strong, healthy stomach.

Get a bottle now and have it ready to help your stomach at times when you need an assistant. Kodol is at the nearest drug store.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate, all druggists know that our guarantee is good. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 2½ times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

RIVERS AND HARBORS

Correspondent Writes of Prime Importance of Forthcoming Congress in Washington—Appeal for Representation.

Editor Star:—The recent meeting of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Conference in Baltimore, served to emphasize the necessity on the part of the commercial and financial interests of this city to take some definite and practical interest in the approaching meeting of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress to be held in Washington, D. C., December 9, 10, 11.

At the meeting in Baltimore there were present about 600 delegates interested in the development of inland waterways from Boston to Beaufort and thence to Florida and the Gulf. This Atlantic Deeper Waterways Conference was composed of men high in National and political importance. The city of Philadelphia had a delegation of 166 business men, prominent merchants and professional men; while Washington, N. C., had 17. Wilmington had one representative at this meeting. Wilmington is, perhaps, as deeply interested in the ultimate success of the inland waterways as is any city in the South, and the completion of this project would mean untold benefits to her commercial development. By the efforts of Wilmington's representative, and with the influence of friends, a motion was passed to petition Congress at this approaching session to extend the survey of the inland waterways from Wilmington to the Florida coast.

Hand in hand with the inland waterways propaganda is the proposition of 30 feet of water in the Cape Fear river from Wilmington to the sea. In November, 1907, the North Carolina Waterways Association was formed for the purpose of procuring the necessary appropriations, at which time Mr. John A. Fox, the special director of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, showed that by the deepening of the channel to 30 feet and the consequent reduction of freight rates to competitive points the difference in rates on the ton mileage basis from cities affected by such water competition, would be from $1.20 to $2.00, and that the saving in freight to cities dependent on this water competition figured on the actual amount of freight handled in 1906 would have been for the cities of Charlotte, High Point, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, Raleigh, Durham, Goldsboro and Wilson approximately the sum of $5,143,500. Another feature is that with 30 feet of water secured for this port, it is highly probable that Wilmington would be made the terminal of the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio Railroad, which fact alone would be of enormous importance to the commercial interests of the city.

Congress will not provide adequately for the improvement of the North Carolina Waterways on a scale commensurate with the needs until the people of this State have demanded that such action be taken, and the approaching meeting of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress above referred to, is for the purpose of concentrating the efforts of the various portions of the country and securing from Congress an adequate appropriation for each proposition. It naturally follows, that if North Carolina does not press its claims and make a strong effort to secure a definite annual sum for this purpose, other sections of the country will receive the benefit of the amount appropriated for such development. It is of the greatest importance that this city particularly, manifest a definite interest and make a definite, concentrated effort at the approaching meeting of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress to obtain our share of the appropriations. This can only be done by Wilmington's sending an able and representative body of men, prominent in the city's business affairs, as delegates to the approaching convention which will be held in Washington, at the New Willard Hotel, December 9, 10, 11, inclusive, as stated above, at which time there will be present from all sections of the United States approximately 2,500 representatives. A number of delegates have been appointed from other cities in this State, and will be commissioned by the Governor for this purpose, and it is hoped that the business interests of Wilmington will appreciate the importance of taking an active interest in the meeting in question. The time has come for us to act definitely and with concerted effort. If this city is to receive any benefit from the approaching meeting a strong delegation must be sent to Washington.

HORSE'S MAD DASH.

Animal Broke Loose and Dashed Through Party of Diners.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Dunn, N. C., Nov. 26.—There was a large congregation gathered at a Baptist chapel in Sampson county today and were celebrating Thanksgiving Sunday School picnic. At the dinner hour a horse belonging to Mr. Chas. Honeycutt was tied to a tree. The animal had the bits out of his mouth eating and suddenly broke loose and ran through the crowd and across the improvised dinner table. A Miss Godwin was trampled upon by the horse, and both her limbs are said to be broken. She has not spoken since and will probably die. A Mrs. Daniels and a baby were thrown against a stump. Mrs. Daniels is injured internally and her recovery is despaired of. The baby will probably recover. Several others were more or less injured. The horse had been taken from the buggy and it is hard to account for his actions in charging the crowd unless afflicted with rabies or something of the kind. Dr. Sykes is attending the unfortunate victims.

DIES FROM INJURIES.

Sergeant Baird, of Asheville, Hurt in Football Game.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Boston, Mass., Dec. 1.—Quartermaster Sergeant Baird Dowdle, of Asheville, N. C., attached to the 83rd U. S. coast artillery, Fort Revere, died tonight of injuries received in a football game on Thanksgiving Day. Dowdle played left tackle on the Fort team in a game against Gray Academy of Bingham. In making a tackle his head and neck were injured. His spine was affected and he became completely paralyzed.

The Department of Agriculture at Washington Saturday ordered a quarantine against the entire State of Maryland so far as cattle, sheep, etc., are concerned, on account of the appearance of foot and mouth diseases. The restrictions put upon the State in the matter of the exportation of animals afflicted with the disease, are the same as those applied to Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey and Michigan.

The Theatre

All the acts on the boards this week at the popular Crystal Palace are good, but among the number one of the neatest and most unique is that presented by the well known eccentric comedian, Harry Newman. He is away from the beaten path by a mile or two and travels his race in speedy manner. The act of Miss Frances Swartz is still causing a whirl among the femininity, because Miss Swartz wears some stunning gowns. This never fails to catch the eye of the lady-patron at the Palace, but then the act is also of great merit. Brooks and Tomlinson are also still making everybody laugh, and aLClair and West are likewise convulsing them. Business was big again yesterday at the Palace and will, no doubt, be for the rest of the week.

Big Attraction Next Week.

Mr. John B. Doris was in the city yesterday and arranged for the coming of the noted star, Miss May Robsin, in the big New York success "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," which last season had a big run on Broadway. This season Miss Robson has been playing some of the larger cities on the road and is now on her way back North. She travels on her own special Pullman car which started with her at Louisville, Ky., the beginning of the season. A special baggage car is also carried and the attraction will be found one of the most important at the local theatre this year.

"Two's Company, Three's a Crowd."

The above will be the title of an exceedingly funny film at the Bijou today. It has to do with a business man and his typewriter and many ludicrous situations keep the audience in an uproar of laughter all the time.

CAMPAIGN IN ATLANTA

Closed Last Night With Both Sides Claiming Victory.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 1.—With both sides claiming victory, Atlanta unusual mayoralty campaign came to a close tonight. By 8 o'clock tomorrow night it will be known whether Chas. G. Woodward twice mayor of Atlanta and nominee of the Democratic primary, or Robert F. Maddox, placed in the race at a mass meeting of citizens called to protest against alleged immoral conduct on the part of Woodward, is to serve as Mayor of Atlanta for the next two years beginning aJnuary 1.

A large number of Maddox supporters, each carrying aloft a "Mattox" marched through the streets late today, Mr. Maddox delivering an address at the conclusion of the parade at the State capitol grounds.

The Woodward supporters concluded their campaign tonight with a torchlight procession and the Maddox supporters held final rallies in the various wards. The alleged affidavits reflecting on the character of Maddox which Woodward promised to make public were not given out.

STRUGGLING AGAINST FLOOD

Large Property Loss is Apparent at Pine Bluff, Ark.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Pine Bluff, Ark., Dec. 1.—Following an all night struggle against the encroachments of the Arkansas River citizens of Pine Bluff renewed the apparently hopeless struggle today. The fate of property aggregating probably $5,000,000 is in the balance. All teams that can be pressed into service are hurrying willow and and pine branches to the river where hundreds of men are working hard weaving mats and pushing these into the river, hoping to form a temporary barrier against the flood.

A section of land north of the court house walls 10 feet wide and 100 feet long is moving slowly toward the river. The kitchen of the residence of C. G. Brockway slid into the river late last night. The entire river front is cracked and unsafe and even for pedestrians.

Citizens of Pine Bluff late today wired President Roosevelt to intercede in behalf of this city to get permission from the Secretary of War to divert the channel of the Arkansas river here.

NIGHT RIDERS INDICTED

Warrants Served on Some of the Men Now in Prison.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 1.—Capiases were today turned over to the sheriff's office for the arrest of the alleged night rider prisoners in jail here and they were later served upon the prisoners by Jailer Bradley.

Israel Johnson, Bob Hoffman, Ray Ransom, Jesse Carter, Lige Clear, Bob Lee and Sam Applewhite were each indicted under two counts, both based on the Walnut Log raid in which Captain Quentin Rankin lost his life. Two charges are murder and felonious assault and battery.

It is learned that the State will not not only be ready for trial of the cases beginning next Monday but that the State will insist that the trial be taken up.

McClesky to be assistant to general freight, Atlanta; Howell Peeples to be division freight agent in charge of Atlanta and Columbus traffic divisions with headquarters in Atlanta, Ga.

F. L. Word, traveling freight agent, Greensboro, N. C.

WARM WIRELETS.

"Night Riders" early yesterday destroyed the barn of W. H. Groassar, at Evansville, Ind. The barn is filled with tobacco and the loss is $3,000.

President Roosevelt yesterday made known his intention of re-appointing W. D. Crum, the negro colector of the Port of Charleston, S. C.

A message from Central City late yesterday afternoon said the mine of the Central Coal & Iron Co., caught fire about 3 o'clock, supposedly from an explosion. The latest word was to the effect that 100 miners were making their escape through an air shaft.

Depressed by an apparently uncontrollable melancholia which had haunted him since the suicide of his wife, November 13th, last, Dr. Randolph H. Hass, a New York dentist yesterday ended his life by swallowing poison.

The expected battle between the revolutionists and troops of the Government, which are entrenched a few miles outside Port au Prince is likely to be deferred for several days. General Antoina has decided to attack Jacmel, which lies 30 miles to the southwest of that city.

C. G. Cowie, formerly a well known cotton buyer and prominent in Memphis social life, was found dead with a bullet hole in his temple late last afternoon. Cowie's body was found in a locked room in his residence on Union avenue. The police declare it was a case of suicide.

State officials, mine owners and rescuers when darkness fell last night believed that all but two victims of the explosion in the Marianna mines of the Pittsburg-Buffalo Coal Co., last Saturday had been recovered. At that time 136 bodies had been hoisted from the bottom of the 500-foot shaft.

Lieutenant R. H. Wymans, of the Dutch Navy, who arrived yesterday in New York from an expedition into hitherto unexplored parts of Dutch Guinia, tells of a strange tribe of negroes with a language of their own, to be one of the most interesting discoveries he and his party made.

Hon. Carter Glass, Congressman from Lynchburg, Va., last night announced through the Times-Dispatch at Richmond, his candidacy for Governor of Virginia. There are now four candidates, Mr. Glass, Judge William H. Mann, Mr. Henry C. Stuart and Hon. Harry St. George Tucker.

William J. Biggy, chief of police of San Francisco, was drowned in the bay Monday night. He was returning to the city from Belvidere in the police launch "Patrol" and when the boat arrived it was discovered that he was missing. Engineer William Murphy reported that the chief had fallen overboard and was lost.

After a full investigation of the attack made near Samburg, Tenn., last week Captain Rogan, the officer in command at Fort Rankin says that as near as can be learned there were not more than eight or ten men in the attacking party. Captain Rogan does not think any shots fired by the guards took effect.

ACTRESS SHOOTS HERSELF.

Determined to End Her Life Like That of Friend.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 27.—Using a pillow to muffle the report of a revolver, Mrs. Eleanor Merron Cowper, a talented playwright and actress, shot herself in the right temple today in an apartment at the St. Regis hotel and she is slowly dying.

Before making the attempt at self-destruction Mrs. Cowper had written a number of letters; one to her lawyer, to take charge of her body, another to the coroner, a third to an undertaker and a fourth to John Hood, a friend, apprising them of her intention to commit suicide.

At about the moment Mrs. Cowper pressed her finger to the trigger of the revolver, the letter addressed to John Wood was being delivered. Mr. Hood glanced through the first few lines and ran to the St. Regis hotel.

The clerk secured a pass key and hurried to the room of Mrs. Cowper, accompanied by Mr. Hood and a maid. They found Mrs. Cowper lying in bed with a pillow still over her head and the revolver clutched in her hand. The bedclothing was stained crimson.

Mrs. Cowper refers to the fact that her husband, Archibald Cowper, was an actor, and that he died three years ago. Practically her only home life, she wrote, was when she lived on the farm of James H. Wallick, at Middletown, N. Y., who collaborated with her in a number of plays she wrote.

Last April Mr. Wallick committed suicide by shooting himself in the right temple and his tragic death seemed to have made a deep impression on Mrs. Cowper. Mrs. Cowper tried to kill herself in identically the same manner today.

In the letter Mrs. Cowper wrote to Judge Boyce, her lawyer, she asked him to notify her parents in New Hampshire of her death. She asked that her body be cremated.

The return of hides to the free list and the duty on shoes, belting, etc., materially reduced is expected to be the result of the united appeal of the tanners and manufacturers for the free entry of hides before the House committee Saturday. Charges of monopoly of American hides and admissions by the leather people regarding the amount of protection required by their industries were made. Other schedules considered yesterday were not important.

VISITING THE PRESIDENT-ELECT

Parties Present to Discuss New York Politics—Booker Washington.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Hot Springs, Va., Nov. 28.—President-elect Taft entertained at dinner tonight Mr. and Mrs. Timothy L. Woodruff, Representative and Mrs. Herbert Parsons and James R. Sheffield, all of New York.

The conference on New York political affairs, which Mr. Woodruff came here to have with Mr. Taft, has not been held, but will doubtless take place tomorrow.

Senator Warner of Missouri, who was chairman of the committee which notified Judge Taft of his nomination, stopped here today on his way to Washington to extend his congregations on the election in person. The Senator assured Mr. Taft that Missouri was behind him in public sentiment on a thorough tariff revision.

A message from Booker T. Washington was brought to Mr. Taft today by Emmet Scott, urging the President-elect to deliver an address some time in February before a meeting to be held in New York to raise funds for the Tuskegee Institute. The invitation will be considered.

Oklahoma came forward to today with a huge turkey sent to the President-elect for his Thanksgiving dinner, but delayed in transit. It will be served later.

AUSTRIA WANTS PEACE

If Assured What She Desires in the Balkans.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Vienna, Nov. 28.—A high official of the foreign office, who may be regarded as speaking for Baron von Aehrenthal, the Austria-Hungarian foreign minister, said today with reference to the Balkan situation:

"I fear that the idea of an International Congress is threatened. We are ready to enter into a conference of the powers on condition that the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina be ratified without debate. Nobody can expect us to meet the possibility of defeat by voters. Our intention to reach an understanding with Turkey before the conference assembles does not seem to find approval in England or Russia and because of this the Porte is encouraged to resist our proposals.

The small Balkan States also ask impossible concessions, which could never be realized peacefully. We are decidedly for peace, but the present situation is gloomy and complicated.

One man was killed, five other persons probably fatally hurt and 35 more or less seriously injured in a rear end collision between two passenger trains at Boston, Mass., on the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad Saturday. The accident was caused primarily by the shifting of trains from the Plymouth division to the Midland division on account of the Plymouth division being tied up by a small wreck.

The coast steamer Ponting, carrying laborers from Narvacan to Pangasinan, in the Philippine Islands, struck a rock and sank during a storm. It is estimated that 100 passengers and the crew were drowned.

POLICY IN FAR EAST

As Agreed on Between United States and Japan—Frriendly Relations Between The Two Governments Made Safe.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Dec. 1.—The notes exchanged between the United States and Japan "declaring their policy in the Far East" which have been the subject of correspondence between Secretary of State Root and Ambassador Takahira for some months, were made public at the State Department tonight. Accompany the declaration are two letters, one from Mr. Takahira and one from Mr. Root, the former expressing the belief that a frank avowal of the aim, policy and intention of the two countries holding important outlying possessions in the region of the Pacific Ocean would not only tend to strengthen the relations of friendship and good neighborhood between the two nations but would materially contribute to the preservation of the general peace, and the latter declaring that "this expression of mutual understanding is welcome to the Government of the United States."

In explicit terms thew are as follows:

1—It is the wish of the two governments to encourage the free and peaceful development of their commerce on the Pacific ocean.

2.—The policy of both governments uninfluenced by any aggressive tendencies, is directed to the maintenance of the existing status quo in the region above mentioned and to the defense of the people of equal opportunity for commerce and industry in China.

3.—They are accordingly firmly resolved reciprocally to respect the territorial possessions belonging to each other in said region.

4.—They are also determined to preserve the common interests of all powers in China by supporing by all pacific means at their disposal the independence and integrity of China and the principle of equal opportunity for commerce and industry of all nations in that Empire.

5.—That should an event occur threatening the status quo as above described or the principle of equal opportunity as above defined, it remains for the two governments to communicate with each other in order to arrive at an understanding as to what measures they may consider it useful to take.

DEATH IN THE SURF

Father, Son and Daughter Drowned While Bathing.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 28.—News reached here today from Dania a small station on the East Coast of Florida of the accidental drowning of Mr. Dyke and his son and daughter which occurred while they were in surf bathing Friday afternoon.

It appears that Young Dyke ventured out too far in the surf and called for help; that his sister swam to him and in trying to save him went under the water. The father seeing his children struggling for life swam towards them and the three went down to death together. Mr. Dyke was prominent in this section of the State.

—Salisbury, N. C., Nov. 27.—A true bill was found today by the Rowan county grand jury against Geo. Murphy, charged with conspiracy to blow open and rob the Wachovia Loan and Trust Company at Spencer in September. A true bill was also found against him for conspiracy to rob Arey's hardware store here of guns and ammunition to use in the job at the bank.

SOME VALUABLE ADVICE IS GIVEN

By Col. Dillingham's Lecturer in an Address Delivered Last Night.

FREQEUNT CAUSE DEAFNESS

The Audience is Shown That Majority of Cases of Impaired Hearing Are the Result of Catarrh in the Head.

Although the Dillingham free entertainment and lectures have been given nightly in this city for several weeks the interest of the people in these events continues without any indication of diminishing, and an increase in the attendance is noticeable at each performance. The lectures delivered by Mr. Alva A. Mils, Col. Dillingham's associate and local representative, command the closest attention and the audience which is deeply impressed by these timely talks on disease.

In his latest lecture Mr. Mills devoted his remarks to that form of deafness that arises from the presence of catarrh in the head, and during the course of his address said:

"A large majority of the cases of total or partial deafness which we meet with every day are directly traceable to catarrh in the head. The delicate organs of hearing appear to be a favorite point of attack for the poisonous catarrhal virus and there are thousands of persons who now suffer with defective hearing through this cause. When catarrh makes its appearance in the head prompt measures should be taken to eradicate it—not alone for the sake of the hearing, but to prevent its spreading from the nasal organs to the stomach through the passages of the throat. When this takes place the victim has catarrh of the stomach, which results in untold pain and possibly the death of the victim.

Catarrh of the head can be cured. Catarrhal deafness can be cured as Dillingham's Plant Juice has proved beyond all question of doubt that it will relieve catarrh in the head and restore the hearing as it did in the case of Mrs. Mary E. Crow, who writes Col. Dillingham as follows:"

"I have been hard of hearing for fifteen years, my condition being caused by catarrh of the head. I have tried numerous remedies, but my hearing was unimproved by anything that I did for it. While attending one of Col. Dillingham's lectures I decided to have his representative make an application of the Plant Juice Liniment to my ear, and will always be thankful for the result of this trial. My hearing was greatly improved by the first application and by continuing its use I am confident that I will eventually be able to hear as good as ever. I know that Plant Juice Liniment is remarkably effective in the treatment of catarrhal deafness and can cheerfully recommend it to anyone suffering with this form of deafness."

Would Mortgage the Farm.

A farmer on Rural Route 2, Empire, Ga., W. A. Floyd by name, says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw; one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c. at R. R. Bellamy's drug store.

—Alice—Do you know why she got a divorce? Clara—Yes; she says she prefers a regular alimony to an irregular allowance.—Chicago News.

Had a Close Call.

Mrs. Ada L. Croom, the widely known proprietor of the Croom Hotel, Vaughn, Miss., says: "For several months I suffered with a severe cough, and consumption seemed to have its grip on me, when a friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery. I began taking it, and three bottles affected a complete cure." The fame of this life saving cough and cold remedy, and lung and throat healer is world wide. Sold at R. R. Bellamy's drug store, 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

—Greensboro Telegram: Effective December 1, the present Danville & Norfolk sleeping car line will be extended to become Norfolk & Charlotte line. These cars will be handled south of Danville on trains 11 and 12.

—Greenville Reflector: When our neighbor town Kinston was having street and sidewalk paving done, one of her citizens refused to pay the pro rata assessment levied against him for work along his property. The town sued him for the amount and the matter went through the courts. The Supreme Court has recently handed down a decision on the case and sustains the town in its contention. This decision is important as it shows that cities and towns have authority to require owners of abutting property to help pay for paving.

—Asheville Citizen: The building of the electric railroad from Asheville to Greenville, S. C., is practically assured, the necessary underwriting being provided for and the contract for the construction of the first section being let. Many rights of way have been secured and construction will begin as soon as all of them are obtained, probably the first of the coming year. The railway is to be built by companies organized and officered by well known business men of Asheville, Hendersonville and South Carolina towns.

—Tarboro Southerner: Mack Ruffin on G. A. Holderness' Panola farm, has, all the conditions being considered, made the best farming record in this part of the State. Thanksgiving found his farm with all the crops gathered, the cotton ginned, hay baled, but it is the cotton crop that we have most in mind. On 100 acres he has made 95 bales, which thus stated does not sound so great; but when it is remembered that more than half of this crop was under water during the recent freshet in the river, the yield is phenomenal. On 18 acres near the town, which was free from the flood, there was gathered 30 bales.

—Asheville Citizen: Authority is given by the Asheville board of trade for the statement that the great Southern Mica Company, whose headquarters are at Cleveland, O., has decided to centralize all its southern plants at Asheville and that a five-years' lease has been taken on the big brick building of the Carolina Coal and Ice Company in the railroad section for use by the Mica concern. The building is now being remodeled and made ready for use by the Great Southern Mica Company. The Asheville plant will be the consolidation of the mica plants at Spruce Pine, Sylva and Heffiin, Ala., which, together with the present mica plants in Asheville, will make this city the third largest mica manufacturing city in the country.

—Washington Messenger: The 13th Annual Session of the Seaboard Medical Association of Virginia and North Carolina will be held in this city Dec. 1, 2 and 3. There will be many prominent physicians and surgeons present on this occasion in the city. Among those who will be present will be Dr. C. P. Wertenbaker, of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Corps, who will give an illustrated lecture at Brown's Opera House on the night of Dec. 2nd. His subject will be Tuberculosis and the public is invited to this lecture. Dr. Wertenbaker uses powerful electrical lenses to show the stereopticon views of all stages of the disease on a large canvas.

—The Robesonian: Mrs. Abe Schwartzberg, daughter of Mr. and rMs. S. Weinstein, of Lumberton, was among the rescued passengers of the Panama steamer Fiance, which was sunk off Sandy Hook Thursday morning. Friday morning's papers carried the story of the disaster given in a New York dispatch of the 26th. At 8 o'clock Thursday morning, in the thick of the fog off Sandy Hook, the steel freighter Georgic rammed and sank the Panama steamer Fiance, outward bound with 85 passengers, the Fiance going down within ten minutes, carrying to their death three of the passengers and one of the crew. The rest of the passengers were rescued.

—Asheville Citizen: That the Southern railway is blocking the building of the Asheville and Weaverville electric railroad is the statement made by an official of the Weaverville Electric company which is constructing the new trolley line. This officer states that the grading of the roadbed is nearly finished but completion is delayed and obstructed because the Southern refuses to allow the Weaverville company to occupy a narrow strip of land about 200 feet about the point where the county road crosses Beaverdam creek, although offered ample compensation for it. It is asserted by this official that the Southern was actuated by the fear that the new line might be extended to Yancey county and make a connection with the C. C. O. railway, formerly called the South & Western, and thus afford a competing line with the Southern. He said that the Southern claimed that it needed the strip of land for its own development at the point indicated.

Where Bullets Flew.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done is worth more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c at R. R. Bellamy's drug store.

THE GREAT ANDES

Surprises and Pleases Conservative Old Charleston.

Charleston, S. C., is one of the most conservative cities in America. With its narrow cobble-stoned streets, dwellings with high fences and locked gates, window shutters made permanent on exterior of house, and the native brogue of its population, the great number of old buildings such as the Market House, people of great wealth and very conservative, make the quaint old Charleston of today, and to say that a stranger could go to this fine old aristocratic southern city and in two weeks surprise and astonish the citizens as never before, would look impossible. Well, this is what was done by The Great Andes. The leading druggist of this city told Mr. Andes he had medicines on his shelf that could be found in no other city in the United States. They were medicines from the old country used by these old conservative citizens, who stuck to the old theories and medicines. Inside of two weeks this same drug store sold thousands of bottles of Andes' Great Medicines, and heard more people testify to what good had done for them than any medicines ever sold from this store.

Geo. Ferguson, living at 32 Blake street, is one among the best cures made by Andes' Great Prescription. He made this statement before 10,000 people. He said: "I was employed at The American Tobacco Factory up to six months ago, when I had to give up my job owing to my condition. For the past eighteen months have gradually lost flesh until I only weighed one hundred and eight pounds. My appetite was good, but what I ate did me no good. Would at time have weak spells and dizziness of head, pains across my chest and under my shoulder blades. I thought I had lung trouble.

When Mr. Andes first came to Charleston, I went to hear him lecture on good health. On the following day, I purchased his Great Prescription from the drug store. By the time I had used the first bottle, I felt better. Have used three bottles and returned to my work and am gaining flesh every day."

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Dec. 1.—The cotton market received more support today and recovered part of an early loss, closing barely steady at a net decline of 1 to 4 points. Sales were estimated at 200,000 bales. The market opened steady at a decline of 3 to 4 points and sold 5 to 6 points net lower during the early session in response to easier cables and a renewal of yesterday's bear pressure and liquidation. But Wall street bulls seemed more inclined to buy than had been the case of the break on the previous day and some prominent brokers appeared around the ring with large supporting orders. The demand from this source checked the decline and shortly after midday the active months sold a point or two net higher on covering by local shorts and scattered commission house buying. Later however, offerings increased and there appeared to be some foreign selling which may have been due to less favorable reports concerning the European political situation and the close was 3 or 4 points off from the top. Southern spot advices were conflicting with the markets officially reported unchanged to 1-8c lower. Interior receipts for the half week were under estimates and estimates for tomorow's receipts at leading points were lighter, many attributing the smaller figures to a slackening of spot demand following the completion of November engagements.

Receipts at the ports today 108,093 against 104,843 last week and 84,891 last year. For the week 425,000 bales against 436,107 last week and 373,727 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 11,672 bales against 15,622 last year and at Houston 27,143 bales against 13,350 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 9.35; middling gulf 9.60; sales 2,100 bales.

Futures opened steady and closed barely steady.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Dec. 1.—The dry goods jobbers are doing a moderate business and the primary dry goods market is generally quiet. Cotton yarns are being bought very moderately. The export trade is quiet as a whole, but the island and South American markets are making small and steady inquiries. Some lining houses are doing a very good general trade while others are quiet, save on special numbers.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Dec. 1.—The professional operators in stocks did most of the business in the day's market. Their transactions were in the class of securities designated specialties for the most part, market pools making their influence felt in more than one case in moving prices much at will.

Yesterday's heavy fall in the price of United States Steel shares was followed today by further free offerings of that stock. A single transaction of 20,000 shares of steel was made on the floor during the day. The selling of this stock is regarded as being prompted, to some extent at least by the growing probability of more radical action on the tariff than has been the expectation in financial quarters. Another development of the day was the definite arrangement by international banking houses to ship gold to Paris on Thursday. Another rise in the foreign exchange rate today wiped out the margin separating the price from the point of profit on gold shipments. Bankers estimate that the movement may run to $10,000,000 or $12,000,000. It is believed that uninterrupted selling of American securities by foreigners is the dominating cause of the movement. The call loan rate was affected today, although in slight degree. Sub-treasury operations took $2,634,000 from the banks on account of a return of Government deposits called for last week by the secretary. Yesterday's announcement of the sale of $50,000,000 of American Telephone bonds was supplemented by the report of the coming issue of $20,000,000 United States Rubber bonds. Next Saturday bids are to be submitted for the $30,000,000 Panama canal bonds.

The irregular liquidation which has been in progress for several days past probably was prompted in varying degree by all of these motives. It proceeded to an extent that brought relief during the course of today's dealings and opened the way for a considerable recovery. The cessation of the pressure on United States Steel and on some other prominent stocks was of more influence in bringing this about that the more sensational advances in a group of specialties. Rock Island preferred was conspicuous in this class, its volatile rise being unexplained by any news bearing on the property. The 2 1-2 per cent. for call loans touched today has not been equalled since the second week in September, when the sharp break in prices of stocks caused a flurry in rates. The market closed in considerable unsettlement.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $7,772,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total stock sales today were 988,600 shares.

TARIFF QUESTION LOCALLY APPLIED

Southern Men Asking For High Rates on Certain Articles.

COTTON AND SILK GOODS

The Schedules Under Consideration by House Committee—New England and South United in Asking For Protection.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Dec. 1.—Today's hearing on the proposed tariff revision was one of the most important of the entire series held by the House Ways and Means committee. Cotton manufactures and silks and silk goods were the two important schedules taken up. In past tariff hearings these subject have proven to be among those of greatest interest, and large delegations of manufacturers are expected from the various cotton manufacturing centers tomorrow to present their views to the committee. Cotton cloth, hosiery, and silk manufactures are among the articles which will attract especial attention.

Silk and silk goods were taken up first.

F. W. Chuney, of Manchester, Conn., president of the Silk Association of America, said that the importers and manufacturers were trying to agree upon a schedule of duties on silk goods which they intend to present to the committee.

B. A. Leavitt, on behalf of the ribbon manufacturers of New York, asked that higher duties be imposed on ribbons woven in the fabric. He said if the increased price then was not granted the ribbon manufacturers would have to go out of business.

A specific duty instead of the present ad valorem duty was asked on silk gloves by Julius Kayser of New York; on artificial silk by Charles Emot, of Randolph, Pa., and on silk velvet by Charles Blumenthal of Shelton, Conn.

Representative Frank Clark, of Florida, was first to be heard on cotton. He argued for a protective duty on Egyptian. West Indian and other long staple cotton. He gave the views of the sea island cotton growers and suggested that a tariff commission should have charge of the tariff.

Several Florida and Georgia cotton growers asked for a duty of 10 cents a pound on long staple cotton. Representative W. B. Lamar spoke for protection for the sea island cotton industry.

D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte, representing the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association, asked for an increase in the duties on the higher grades of yarns. He described to the committee the commercial, educational and social development of the South. Representative Underwood of Alabama, brought out these remarks by a series of questions and frequently affirmed the statements of the witness.

Discussing the tariff system, Mr. Tompkins said he believed 80 per cent. of the people favored a tariff that would protect American industries. "Free traders are mere theorists and if the Government was turned over to them they could not run it," said Mr. Tompkins. "And if you were to turn the Government over to the standpatters you would not have any government."

"Do you still say 'amen' inquired Chairman Payne of Mr. Underwood.

R. J. Miller, of Charlotte, N. C., and G. Minot Weld, of Boston, Mass., asked for increase in the rates on the finer grades of cotton yarns.

George J. Martin manufacturer of lace curtains at West Newton, Mass., asked for a reduction in the duties on netting.

John L. Patterson, of North Carolina, asked that the duty on bleached and colored and cotton damask be retained and that the tariff on mercerized damask be increased from 40 to 50 per cent.

Mr. Newberry was sworn in today, and participated in the cabinet meeting. He was accompanied to the White House by Mr. Metcalf, his predecessor, who formally presented him to the President's official family.

KILLED GIRL AND SELF

Feeble Cries From Apartment in Memphis Hotel Led to Gruesome Discovery Believed to Have Been Wife Chicago Man.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 1.—One of the occupants, a woman, dead, and her 7-year-old daughter dying, the distorted features and blackened mouths of both where poison had touched, bearing mute evidence of the means, was the sight which greeted attaches who attracted by the cries of the child burst into an apartment of a local hotel early today.

The woman was lying on the floor, disrobed. The child was on a bed and nearby was the empty vial from which the mother had evidently after administering the drug—carbolic acid—to the child, swallowed the remainder. The child was removed to a hospital where it died some hours later.

The woman registered last night as "Mrs. Schmitt, Hot Springs, Ark." and after depositing jewels valued at $500 with the clerk the two retired to their apartments. Early today the night watchman heard the feeble cries of the child which led to the gruesome discovery.

Among the effects of the woman were found an insurance policy and other papers bearing the name of Teresa Errington.

Despondency Over Ill Health.

Chicago, Dec. 1.—Nicholas P. Errington, 242 Schiller street, when informed of the Memphis occurrence said that the woman must have been his wife, Theresa Errington, and he prepared to go at once to Memphis. He said that she had no possible motive that he knew of for committing suicide, although she had been in poor health for some time.

Said he: "With our little girl she was going to Hot Springs, where I was to have joined them. Theresa was not well and we had hoped that the trip would do her good. If it is true that she has taken her life I can only think that despondency over her ill health prompted her to the act. She was usually of a cheerful disposition."

FEUD REACHES CLIMAX

Enmity of Long Standing Between Families in Laural County, Kentucky, Has Resulted in Murder Dozen Persons.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 1.—A sheriff's posse is searching the mountains in Laurel county today for William Tyree and Robert Barnes, who are charged with the murder last Sunday of William Barnes and Mrs. Emma Taylor. The double murder was the result of a long standing family feud between the Whitaker, Mize and Barnes families in which many people have been slain on both sides. According to the story told by Barnes' grand-daughter, Tyree and Robert Barnes appeared at the home of William Barnes on Sunday and, without giving William Barnes a chance for his life, shot and killed him. Mrs. Taylor appeared on the scene with a shot gun, but before she could fire she received the contents of a gun fired by Robert Barnes.

At least a dozen persons have been killed during the last five years in the Whitaker-Barnes feud. Among the deaths in the Whitaker, Mize and Barnes families and their relatives were the killing of William Whitaker by Tom Bolton, Elisha Whitaker by James Mize, Willie Whitaker and John Farmer, who killed each other; Harvey Mize killed his wife and dangerously stabbed her brother, Ray Whitaker; Lum Whitaker was killed by J. W. Woodall; Roy Whitaker by two of the Barnes boys; Julius Warren, who married a Whitaker, killed James Arnold, and his son Harland Arnold.

OWNERSHIP OF THE OIL COMPANIES

John D. Archbold Was Subjected to a Gruelling Examination Yesterday.

KELLOGG AFTER THE TRUST

Efforts to Sustain Government's Charges That Large Number of Oil Companies Are Controlled by Standard.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Dec. 1.—Seeking to unravel the puzzling ownership of the Security Oil Co., of Texas, and other oil companies which the Government charges are controlled by the Standard Oil Co., Frank B. Kellogg, Federal counsel in the United States suit to dissolve the so-called oil trust, subjected John D. Archbold to a gruelling cross-examination today. Mr. Kellogg sought information regarding certain mysterious loans of $2,700,000 made to James McDonald by the Anglo-American Company, a Standard subsidiary, but Mr. Archbold, a director of the Anglo company was unable to throw any light on the question.

For over a year the Government's counsel has been trying to obtain information regarding these McDonald loans, but has failed. The Government alleged that the loans were made to enable the Standard to secretly purchase the Manhattan Oil Co., of Ohio. Mr. Archbold said that he and Henry H. Rogers resigned as directors of the Anglo-American Co., shortly after their election a year ago. The vice president of the Standard denied that the resignations were brought about by the present Government proceedings.

Mr. Archbold was closely questioned about many pipe lines and refineries which had been purchased by the Standard. He denied that the refineries had been bought that they might be dismantled, thereby removing competition. They were secured, Mr. Archbold said, to succeed to their volume of business.

When asked if he was a "leading" official of the Standard, Mr. Archbold said he was "active."

Mr. Archbold was asked if it was not true that the Standard had purchased the tank cars, refineries and pipe lines of the Manhattan from the London company. The witness said he understood that the purchase was made. Mr. Archbold said that Anthony N. Brady had told him that he purposed selling the Manhattan Oil Co., and wanted to obtain a contract for oil supply for the People's Gas Light & Coke Co., of Chicago. A contract was entered into, Mr. Archbold said, but he did not know the terms of the contract.

Mr. Archbold's attention was called to the loans of $2,700,000 which the Anglo Company had made to Mr. McDonald but he said he knew nothing of them.

"Will you produce the London books of the Anglo-American Co.?"

"I don't think I have the power. I am not a director now."

"A list furnished by your company shows that you were elected a director of the Anglo in June, 1907."

"I think I resigned shortly after that."

"Did you resign as a result of this investigation?"

"I should not say I did."

In response to later questioning by Mr. Kellogg in regard to the McDonald loan the witness said he could not explain the loan as he had not investigated it.

"Why didn't you investigate it?"

"I did not feel called upon to do so."

"Will you try to find out about the loan?"

"If my counsel so advise."

"Isn't it a fact that Standard Oil interests own directly or indirectly, the General Industrial Company?" asked Mr. Kellogg.

"I have no knowledge of it."

"Does the Standard own or control the Londan Commercial Trading & Investment Co.?"

"Not to my knowledge."

Mr. Archbold said he understood the Corsicana Refining Company had been built with the Standard's money. He was not aware that the money furnished for the Corsicana Company only appeared on the Standard's books as a loan to Folger and Payne.

"How is it held now?"

"Folger and Payne are paying for it. The vexatious conditions in Texas made us want to get rid of it."

Mr. Archbold said that under advice of counsel the legal ownership of the Waters-Pierce Oil Co., was held by C. M. Platt and M. M. VanBuren, Mr. Archbold's son-in-law.

RAILROAD TAXES.

After the Southern Pacific For Back Taxes in Missouri.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 1.—In the Circuit Court today Judge Stout rendered a decision in which he directs the board of valuation and assessment to assemble and assess the Southern Pacific Railroad according to law. Judge Stout does not say what valuation shall be placed on the Southern Pacific which has its offices at Beechmont, a suburb of Louisville. The suit, however, was to force an assessment on a valuation of $250,000,000 and will mean about $6,000,000 for the State if the court of appeals upholds the judgement, as five years' taxes are involved.

Shooting, she alleges in defense of her sister, Miss Estelle Stout yesterday in Chicago killed Henry Hornberger, agent for a picture enlarging concern. Mrs. A. Chambers, a sister of Miss Stout, quarreled with Hornberger, according to the police over an enlarged picture of a third sister who is dead, when Hornberger called to deliver it.

STILL MORE ARRESTS.

White Man and Negro Hack Driver Latest in Smith Case.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 1.—Tim Holderfield, while, as principal, and Ed Chals, a negro hack driver, as accessory, were arrested today in the caes of the murder of E. W. Smith, the Richmond coal drummer. This makes three more arrested as principals, six men and two women arrested as accessories in the crime. No time has yet been named for preliminary trials.

All fourth class postmasters in the States east of the Mississippi river and north of the Ohio river, were yesterday placed in the classified service by an executive order of the President in Washington. Hereafter all the appointees to fourth class postmasterships in those States must undergo civil service examinations. Postmasters now holding office will not need to take the examinations. Over 15,000 fourth class postmasters are affected by the order.
